Your rights as data subject

If your personal data is processed, this makes you a data subject as defined by the GDPR and affords you the following rights in relation to the controller:

1. Right of access

You can obtain confirmation from the controller as to whether or not we are processing personal data concerning you.

Where that is the case, you can obtain access to information from the controller about the following:

Where processing of personal data concerning you has been restricted, this data may, with the exception of storage, be processed only with your consent or for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for important grounds of public interest of the European Union or of a member state.

(5) for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims.

5. Right to be informed

If you have exercised your right to rectification, erasure, or restriction of processing vis-à-vis the controller, the controller is obligated to communicate any rectification or erasure of personal data concerning you or restriction of its processing to each recipient to whom the data has been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort.

You have the right to request information about the recipients from the controller.

6. Right to data portability

You have the right to receive the personal data concerning you, which you have provided to the controller, in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format. You also have the right to transmit that data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data was provided, where:

(1) the processing is based on consent pursuant to Article 6 Paragraph 1 (a) or Article 9 Paragraph 2 (a) GDPR or on a contract pursuant to Article 6 Paragraph 1 (b) GDPR; and

(2) the processing is carried out by automated means.

In exercising this right, you also have the right to have the personal data concerning you transmitted directly from one controller to another, where technically feasible. This shall not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

The right to data portability does not apply to the processing of personal data necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

7. Right to object

You have the right, at any time, to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to processing of personal data concerning you that is based on Article 6 Paragraph 1 (e) or (f) GDPR, including profiling based on those provisions.

The controller will no longer process the personal data unless the controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing that override your interests, rights, and freedoms or the processing is for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims.

Where personal data concerning you is processed for direct marketing purposes, you have the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing.

Where you object to processing for direct marketing purposes, the personal data concerning you will no longer be processed for such purposes. In the context of the use of information society services, and notwithstanding Directive 2002/58/EC, you can exercise your right to object by automated means using technical specifications.

8. Right to withdraw data protection declaration of consent

You have the right to withdraw your data protection declaration of consent at any time. Withdrawal of consent will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on such consent prior to its withdrawal.

9. Automated individual decision-making, including profiling

You have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affects you. This does not apply if the decision:

(1) is necessary for entering into, or performance of, a contract between you and the controller;

(2) is authorized by Union or member state law to which the controller is subject and that also lays down suitable measures to safeguard your rights and freedoms and your legitimate interests; or

(3) is based on your explicit consent.

However, these decisions must not be based on special categories of personal data referred to in Article 9 Paragraph 1 GDPR, unless Article 9 Paragraph 2 (a) or (g) GDPR applies and suitable measures to safeguard your rights and freedoms and your legitimate interests are in place.

In relation to the cases referred to in points (1) and (3), the data controller will implement suitable measures to safeguard your rights and freedoms and your legitimate interests, at least the right to obtain human intervention on the part of the controller, to express your point of view and to contest the decision.

10. Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the member state of your habitual residence, place of work, or place of the alleged infringement, if you consider that the processing of personal data concerning you infringes the GDPR.

The supervisory authority with which the complaint has been lodged will inform the complainant on the progress and the outcome of the complaint, including the possibility of a judicial remedy in accordance with Article 78 GDPR.
